

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN

Circles: 120 Women participated in 8 circles.

Hilda Hobson, Moderator

Service Opportunities provided by our Presbyterian Women

- Every Sunday, our women stand at the door and greet worshipers.
- Circles adopt all college students and remember them with cards, prayers, and gifts.
In the fall of 2010, we adopted 29 college students.
- Circles wrote to our missionaries every month and sent them gifts.
- Circles provided Women's Correctional Center activities as follows:
  - Provided a breakfast for a work group
  - Provided a birthday party in August with cake, ice cream, gifts, and entertainment led by Glenn Bannerman.
  - Provided funds and cakes for the Christmas Dinner.
  - Pledged funds for the chaplain.
  - Provided funds and snacks for their Mother/child Retreat.
- Circles provided several receptions following memorial services for Church members and in recognition of staff on several occasions.
- Circles collected food every month for SVCM.
- PW provided "These Days" Devotional booklets for church members.

Gatherings

- In January, all circles joined together for Bible Study from Revelations led by Florence Shelor. A soup and salad lunch was held.
- The February Mission Gathering was canceled due to bad weather.
- In May, we co-hosted the Presbytery Spring Gathering with PHFC.
- In May, 50 women attended our Birthday Gathering and dinner.
- In October, 45 women attended the Thank Offering Gathering and luncheon.

Special Mission Projects

- PW pledged funds to support our local colleges, community services, weekday school at BMPC, Chaplain's Fund, our missionaries, our youth, Presbyterian Home For Children, and Meals on Wheels.
- Several women knit premie caps and squares to be made into blankets for babies in Malawi and Lesotho.
