

Ellen Farringham with Juana Herlinda Yac Salanic at BMPC on September 28.

Juana Herlinda Yac Salanic is from the western Highlands of Guatemala where she has held many leadership positions in her presbytery women's group. She serves as the Corresponding Secretary for the Presbyterian Women's organization for the National Evangelical Presbyterian Church of Guatemala. She is involved in community groups focused on improving the standard of living for many, including work with the community health post to provide better health care for those most at risk. Her experience has emphasized the remarkable strength of Presbyterian women in empowering community leadership.